PROLOGUE

What is a school? Is it students absorbing ageless, yet changing, facts? Is it a constant search for the new blended with the old?
Is it people laughing, learning and looking? Is it the combination of classes, extra-curricular activities, and personal achievement? Yes — this, and more. It is a mass searching, a concentration of effort, a gathering of individuals in quest of knowledge—a mixture, a POTPOURRI.
This is any school.
This is CHS.

"Hey, did you read the prologue in the front of this book? Well, I did. Maybe I don't understand, but how in the world do you pronounce that funny-looking word they've got there—P-O-T-P-O-U-R-R-I? It must be one of those foreign words—it looks Greek to me. If they'd only ask me, I'd tell about basketball, band, bulletin boards AND learning Q-W-E-R-T- in typing AND "fragrant" odors from chem lab AND club doughnut and CHS is really a conglomeration of activities, and what a mixture of work and play we have here!!! Hm-mm—It seems to me that this would be the theme of any annual!! And the '67 Trucker staff chose—well, you try to say it—P-O-T-P-O- . . .!!"

Change, Activity, Direction—Results of Truckers' Ideas and Expressions

"As I said before, if I were putting together this book, I'd have loads of pictures that at least showed what we've all been through this year! Remember that first week when our sunburn and surfing had to give way to books and studies -- and homework? Sure was a good thing that football games and dances and assemblies and other things came along to help ease the pain. And if we hadn't had clubs and homecoming and Christmas vacation and all that, I think I'd've cracked! How 'bout that new computer type of scheduling? You know, I was scheduled for 6 classes of gym?? And before I knew it, the year had almost gone by! I wonder if they will let me be on the Trucker staff next year? I'd really show 'em how to put out a book, man! Hmmmm—P-O-T-P-O-U-R-R-I—of all things to pick for a theme!

"By the way, did you hear who they've dedicated the '67 Trucker to? He's a real swinger! If it wasn't for him, we sure wouldn't've had very lively football games or pep rallies, would we? How in the world do you reckon he stands all those students learning to play and trying to read music? He sure must have a lot of patience! I wonder if his feet ached after all of those parades?? He sure must have something going for him 'cause he was chosen to lead the entire workshop band this year! You know, it must be true what Mr. Beck says on the P A system! We do have the best band, and I'll bet it's all because of Mr. Mitchell! Yes—he must be the reason!!'

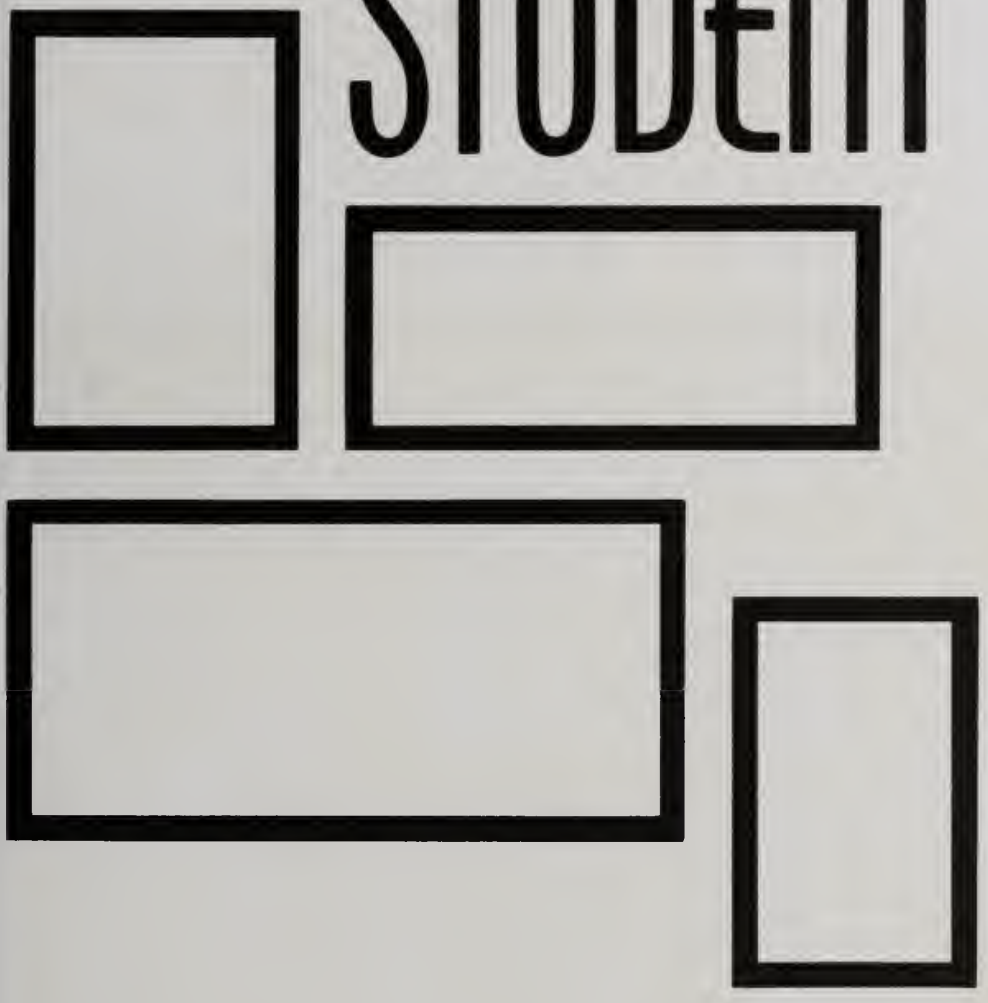
I must be getting old, for school had no sooner begun and football games started than it was time for the senior play and our Christmas vacation and winter activities! I sure wish we'd had a longer snow vacation! I know one thing for sure —I was snowed under—by work!! How about those dances after the games; we sure had some real swinging times. The second semester wasn't much in the beginning, but didn't it end up with a bang—particularly the fire in the art room. Some smoke! Some fun!!"

STUDENT LIFE



CHS Returns to High School Routine amid Fall Confusion

What confusion!!! IBM schedule cards, seventeen new teachers, an uncountable number of freshmen, and 259 experienced Seniors! Combined with furrowed brows of summer-dazed students forced back into the classroom, ring polishing, "May I have your attention please for the morning announcements?", the lunchroom stampede, exchange student Dominique Borrione, cheering at football games and pep rallies, the color and excitement of Homecoming, the suspense during the Marshal pinning, the tension of college entrance exams, and the relief of Thanksgiving vacation, and VOILA! Churchland, reuniting diverse emotions, individuals, and activities, had returned to the routine of being a high school.

"OH, WHAT A horrible fate," thinks Mary Nell Lynch, "to return to school after such a wonderful summer!"

"GO-OO-OO-OO . . ." resounds through the Churchland stands as excitement reigns during "kick-off" with the Princess Anne Cavaliers.

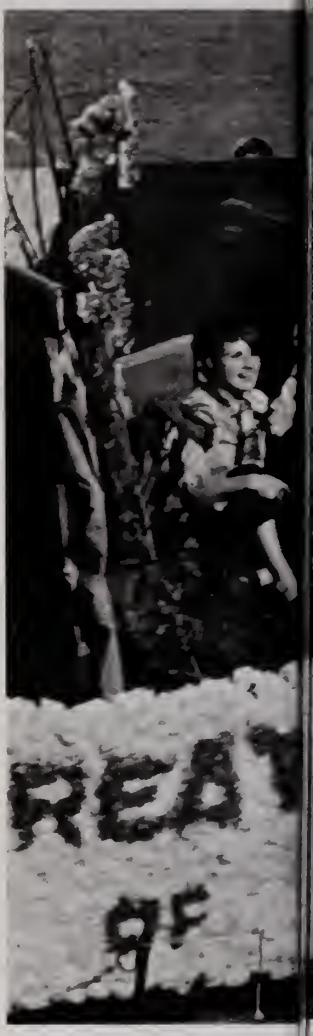
"PLEASE, I'D RATHER do it myself!" During a chorus rehearsal, Mr. Barnes enthusiastically sings and conducts the mixed chorus, with Pat Tynch and Franny McCready as accompanists.

BOB SLADE CONGRATULATES Sharon Pate, after being pinned as Trucker Hi-Y's sweetheart.

"LET'S NOT BE emotional, Steve!" Alexis Tew pins Steve Braintwain chief marshal.

OVERJOYED, VALERIE TOWNSEND hugs Linda Tew, as they are chosen head J.V. cheerleaders.

"NO, NO, STEVE, that's not your money!" Vicki Burden, Richie Stallings, Steve Braintwain, and Karen Hathcock busily count donations made during the Thanksgiving welfare drive.



A CHS ORPHAN Annie? No, only FHA member Nancy Sumner during her initiation.

"HOW MANY DO you want?" asks Mr. Beck, as he sells Mike Rooks football tickets before school.

DURING A TYPICAL band practice, our trombonists perform in unison!

Profusion of Events Fills Fall Calendar for Busy Truckers

THE "WORLD OF literature" comes alive during homecoming festivities as Connie Hemby Tri-Hi-Y's float passes the judges stand.

"LOOK AT WHAT Vic Tanny has done for you, Bob Henkel!" says Tom Wetmore while amazed Jeff Jackson helps Jimmy Davis to his feet during the senior class play.

PATSY EDWARDS RECEIVES a kiss of congratulations from Mr. Mitchell on being chosen Harvest Queen at the band's annual ball.

DIANA NEGLEY AND Dwight Smith register "voter" Bill Beach for CHS's mock senatorial election — another example of democracy at work!

"SNOW, BEAUTIFUL SNOW," think appreciative Truckers leaving school early.

THE U. S. NAVY Show Band's "Slippery Three" entertain at a special assembly with a colorful, rousing number.

"ALL I WANT for Christmas is my two front teeth!!" grins Martha Rapoport at the choral concert.

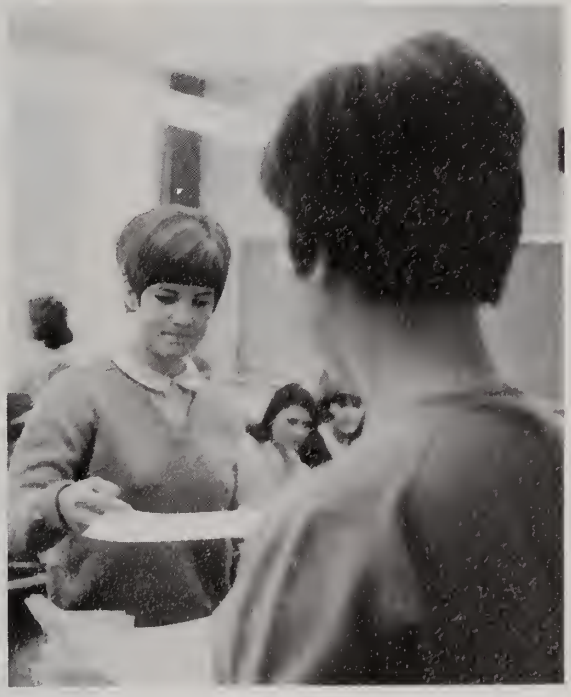
BOB HENKEL ADDS festive spirit to CHS by decorating the SCA Christmas tree.

"NO ARM WRENCHING, biting, or tickling!!" CHS wrestler Leroy Coppedge stands warned.

Basketball, Snow, Exams Interrupt "Winter Doldrums" of CHS Life

As the picturesque choral concert was putting everyone in the holiday spirit, CHS temporarily relaxed for ten brief days of fun. Then — there were wrestling and basketball! "Go-go-get'em-get'em-unh!-unh!" was a truly unique Trucker cheer which, along with the energetic performance of the U. S. Navy Show Band, managed to arouse lethargic students, prematurely stricken with spring fever.

While full exam schedules besieged most Truckers, many fortunate Seniors were rewarded with exemptions. As a relief to everyone snow came, bringing with it extra vacations for all!!!



MIDTERM REPORT CARD day!! Donna Holthoff prepares to face reality as Mrs. Smith gives her evidence of a half year's work.

Spring Brings Potpourri of Excitement, Great Expectations for Truckers

AS LAURIE HOLZSWEIG admires the new style senior rings, Sonny Jernigan "tries one on for size."

"UMMMMMM . . ." DOMINIQUE BORRIONE expresses the delight and pleasure of her honorary birthday party, given by the SCA.

BACK STAGE AWAITING the judges' decision, finalist Kaye Keith is congratulated by contestants Ann Connell and Stephanie Taylor.

As second semester ushered itself in with snow and "moans", Truckers began to be awakened with thoughts of spring fever and its excitement. The crowning of Mr. and Miss Churchland, the competition play, and juniors' ordering rings were only preludes to the many events of the warm days of spring.

SCA elections, science fairs, April 15th and Seniors, outdoor sports, bermuda day, the prom — all converged on CHS as if to reawaken dormant minds to the multitude of school activities. For Seniors, graduation was in sight with its sentiments and mixed emotions. For underclassmen, a year had come to an end with expectations for greater responsibility and challenge. '67 had been a year of the combined effort and achievement of 1300 Truckers, the CHS POTPOURRI.

DURING A PRE-SEASON practice, Everett Elliott braces himself at the plate as Donnie Tuttle awaits the pitch.

SOBERLY AND SENTIMENTALLY, Seniors slowly march into the stadium during graduation — the culmination of four years of achievement.

"ROMANCE IS A RACKET," thinks Jimmy Davis as he, Wendy Wilson, and Ginny Rawls perform in the CHS festival play entry.

"I declare, I sure am glad I'm not a teacher. If I though that I had to explain geometry and verbs and the War of 1812 and amoebas and all those other complicated things, I think I would go crazy. And what about the clangs, toots, and bangs in band or the perfumery odors from the lab and those meals in home ec. It sure must take a lot of patience! I don't see how some of the teachers can stand all that extra work after school with clubs and sports and the annual and all that. All I have got to say is more power to them. I am just glad it is not me who has to put up with it all."

ACADEMICS

Administration Sits Back as Computer Saves Hours of Tedious Work for CHS

Whether leading the student body in a cheer at a pep rally, handing out "bouquets" over the public address system, representing CHS in the community, or providing a sympathetic ear, our principal, Mr. Beck, remains a calm island in the sea of problems.

This year, with the aid of the new computer at Great Bridge, the heavy load of Mr. Beck and his assistant, Mr Gaskins, has been considerably lightened. Supervision, discipline, community relations, personal contact with faculty and students cannot be computerized; these require the human element. At CHS we know we have the best in Mr. Beck and Mr. Gaskins.

English Teachers Urge Students to Read! Read! Read!

"Motivation in reading" was the theme of the English Department for '66-'67. Teachers motivated students to read abstract material to obtain better comprehension and increased depth and to develop wider vocabularies in preparation for later life. Another aim was to help students think and write in clearer and more concise ways.

While freshmen read Great Expectations, sophomores explored the life of Silas Marner; juniors discovered the great symbolism hidden in Moby Dick and seniors poured laboriously over Macbeth. This literature, combined with writing themes and doing research for term papers, gave Truckers new insights and practical experience in just what makes the English language what it is.

DURING SPEECH CLASS, Patty Nelson seriously gripping the podium delivers a lecture on "The Art of Keeping Calm."

"ARE YOU SURE this information is correct?" says Mrs. Davis as she checks over Susan Garrett's note cards.

MISS GIBBS EXPLAINS the Dewey Decimal system to a Senior English class.

BRENDA ELLIOTT REPORTS on F. Scott Fritzgerald's novel, Tender Is the Night while Mrs. Hall listens intently.

SONNY BLECKLEY PLODS on, while Mary Conner looks for approval of her completed problem.

Math Department Gets Young Blood When Students Teach

Several senior math students were given the chance of a lifetime in September—to play teacher for two whole weeks. Strangely enough, their pupils seemed to welcome the arrival of a permanent teacher, Mrs. Jones. Another addition, a new math typewriter, enabled teachers to prepare tests more easily and more speedily. Teachers, if not students, welcomed this machine which added to efficiency in the department. In March, a national math contest provided students with a chance to measure their abilities and to have the chance to compare their learning with students in other schools.

"OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS" FOR Dwight Smith who gets the chance to teach these lucky students in algebra.

OBLIVIOUS TO HIS algebra work, Joel Jacobson ponders what tie to wear for his Friday night date.

BRENDA MEYERS' AMERICAN History course is so enthralling that she doesn't even need to open her textbook.

ANDY CONSTANTINIDES SITS in awe as Mr. Mancuso delivers a fascinating lecture on some aspect of psychology.

New Course, Psychology, Probes Why's of Human Nature

How do we live? Why has the American nation become the one it is today? These are some of the many questions with which our Social Studies Department is concerned, for its interest lies on man, his environment, and his relationships with the world.

During their years at CHS, students learn of America's geographical and historical background, and of democracy's value, freely expressing their opinions.

The Social Studies Department again showed its dynamism this year by adding psychology to the students' curriculum, in order to broaden their cultural background.

LENNOX BOUSH, BRUCE Staples and Randy Farris participate in a panel discussion in government class.

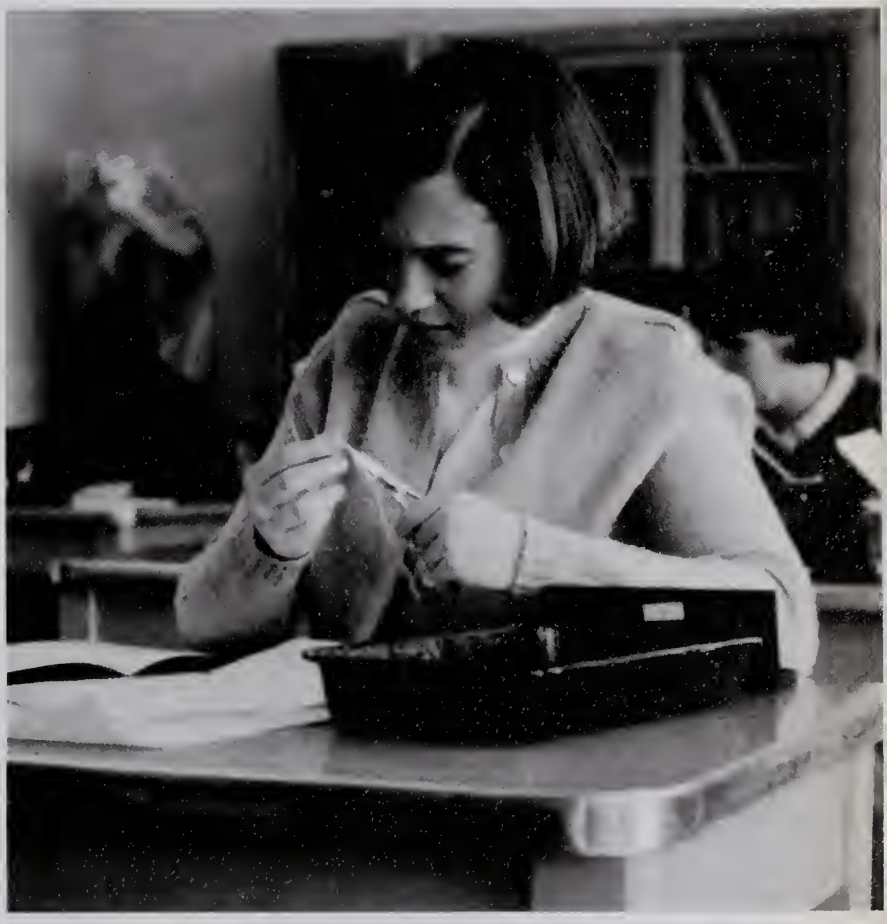
Experimentation and Research Make Impossible Answers Possible for Science Students

"Consider it a challenge" rang through the halls of CHS as teachers of the Science Department assigned such "impossibilities" as balancing redox equations, dissecting worms, and determining relative velocities to their scientific-minded students.

The arrival of four new teachers to the science faculty marked the introduction as well as the application of new ideas and methods of learning. Term papers, of course, highlighted the year, allowing students to apply their knowledge empirically.

WAYNE PARKER AND Glenn Kersnick agree that this physics experiment beats a pop quiz any day.

"IS IT POSSIBLE to learn the whole Periodic Chart before the bell rings?" wonders Gerry Mountcastle while he crams for a test.



"THIS HURTS ME more than it does you," thinks Claire Brenner of her biology specimen. Obviously!

ANGELIC CHORUS BOYS, Al Pendleton and Dennis Van Curen practice for the annual Christmas Concert.

SO ABSORBED IN her music is Mary Copeland that (gasp!) she doesn't even realize her shoelaces are untied!

MARY JO BEAUBIEN ADDS fine brush strokes to her painting, but her camera-shy friend finds better work to do.

Fine Arts Students Exhibit Talents with Posters, Concerts, Assemblies

CHASPER TAYLOR PLAYS it with a little "soul."

Voices . . . instruments . . . paints — a potpourri of talent found in the Fine Arts Department of CHS. Appreciation and creativity further tied the seemingly unrelated classes of this department together. Art students showed talent and originality in the posters they prepared for various contests. The band continued to provide good music and entertainment at pep rallies, football games and concerts. A new personality, Mr. Barnes, added vim and vigor to the choral program. Such self-involvement thus gave students opportunity to learn to appreciate some of life's finer things.

Manual Arts Stress Home-Centered Skills

Concentrating on the development of manual skills, shop, home ec, and mechanical drawing stressed recognition and application of learned skills.

In mechanical drawing, students learned the basics of home construction while the girls in home ec learned the familiar skills of homemaking. In shop, minor metal and wood repairs were taught. All of these courses prepared the students for future life.

SUSAN BARTON FIGURES she will be able to open her own Boutique shop by the time she finishes her home ec course.

JOHN COWHIG AND Tommy Netterville concentrate on a game of "tug o' war" over a sheet of metal.

TOMMY POTTS LEARNS how to make small blocks of wood out of large blocks in shop.

FUTURE ARCHITECT JOHN Link designs the blue prints for a bridge from earth to the moon.

Business Students Greet World Prepared, Eager, Ready to Work

"Ready, set . . . begin!" So started timings in the typing rooms. Students entered class in fear of the plaguing "undetected errors." Learning the parts of the typewriter, doing "jobs", and having timings took up the first few weeks. What a blessing finally to be allowed to use the taperaser!

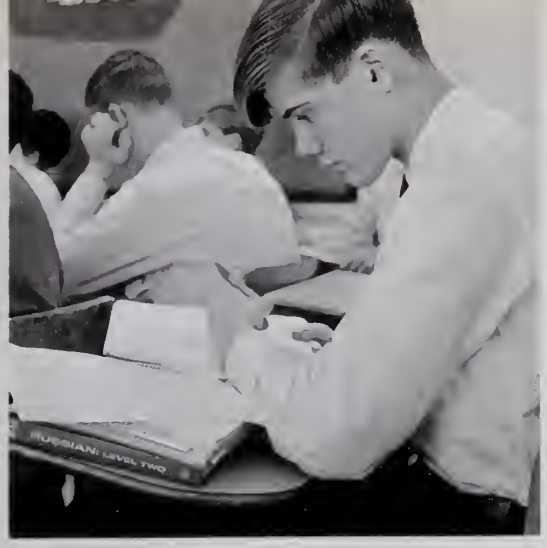
New editions of law, shorthand, and general business books found their way into the lives of the business students. Classes of DE, VOT, and ICT helped in preparing students for futures in the world of business.

"THIS IS EASY, but how do I stop it!" thinks Karen Jeffers as Mr. Still looks on.

BRENDA STEARNS PECKS away at the typewriter looking forward to the day when she'll be the personal secretary for some young executive.

"I SURE WISH I had this adding machine for my math class," muses Chandler Albrecht.

CAROL HOLLOWELL, ARLISS Grimsley and Ava Julian take shorthand from dictating machines.



"NYET, NYET, JIMMY Wetmore! You shouldn't do English homework in Russian class! Wait 'til Mrs. Katz finds out."

"ICH HABE HEADACHE!" moans Mike Gutzler into the language lab as he recites German phrases.

KAREN HARRIS, PRESUMABLY a CHS Spanish student, is really a matador fighting bulls . . . in her daydreams.

"Guten Tag" Added to Potpourri of Hello's at CHS

Do you prefer "buenos dias", "bonjour", "salve", "zdravctvui", "guten tag", or just plain "HELLO"? CHS students can choose either Spanish, French, Latin, Russian, or German as their foreign language, the largest choice in the area.

German was the newest addition to the curriculum. Its students, along with pupils of other modern languages, learned under the Audio-Lingual Method, which emphasizes speaking and conversation in the language. Latin stressed grammar and reading of classical Roman literature.

New Duplicating Machine Supplements Expanding Library

Absolute silence is the by-word in the CHS library. From 8:00 A.M. until late in the afternoon, Miss Gibbs and Mrs. Brantley distribute audio-visual aids, duplicate materials on the new copy machine, and make the library the most functional part of CHS. As the central room for study, with a circulation of 39,614, it affords every student a chance to supplement classroom study.

"JUST ONE MORE and I'll break my record . . . ten sit-ups!" thinks struggling Sidney Pollard.

New Equipment, New Ideas, New Methods Add New Flavor to Gym Classes

"All right, let's get in your squads," was a command heard often by the gym classes throughout the year. The girls frequently began class by doing exercises to music.

Mrs. Palmer, the new teacher, brought many new tactics with her. She spent a six-weeks on gymnastics. The uneven parallel bar and the balance beam were equipment new to Churchland. The regular sports of basketball, football, volleyball, and hockey were played.

In the classroom both freshmen and sophomores study the human body with sophomores delving more into the realms of behavior, emotions, and intelligence. Girls in junior and senior phys ed learned to share their experience by helping in the elementary school for several days a week.

"TAKE A LOOK at those cobwebs on the ceiling," Peyton Marshal tells Howard Lebow while they "take five".

"Say, have you paid your class dues yet? I sure did hate to part with that $2; at least I didn't have to pay the $3, $4, or $5 of the sophomores, juniors, and seniors! I suppose though, it all goes to good causes for the spring proms are always real swinging dances! And I suppose the juniors and seniors can really feel proud 'cause some of their money goes toward the organ they gave to the school. And, you know, even though we do have a pretty big school, it is still small enough to know almost everybody. This is what makes Trucker life great!!"

Privileges and Responsibilities Mark Final Year for Class of '67

How did it feel to be a senior? Probably not much different at first, but as time passed . . . Perhaps it was that unaccustomed weight on the ring-finger, or dressing-up for assemblies, or gaining a little respect from the underclassmen. Possibly more than anything else, it was that feeling of transience, the sudden awareness of passing from one significant phase of life into another, equally significant. It was the final year before embarking upon that new phase of life, and seniors made the most of it. First there was the ring dance, followed by Homecoming and the class play. Spring brought college and job applications, the prom, and the class party. Last of all came that event well worth waiting for, the result of twleve years of hard work — GRADUATION!

The next to the last ingredient—the Class of '68! It was an extra good feeling to know that ten years had gone by to achieve the status of lower upper-classmen. With the prospect of increased responsibilities in clubs and all-out participation in sports, the juniors became the secondary leaders—only a single notch below seniors. Class dues of $4.00 caused each junior to entertain thoughts of the prom at various times throughout the year. Juniors, in charge of some SCA committees, began to realize the inner workings of the many phases of CHS life. Being in the homecoming court, becoming varsity cheerleaders, and working on higher math, physics, and languages caused many to begin thinking about college, for PSAT's and College Boards found all racking their brains to achieve the best scores possible. But one big thing created a feeling of pride and importance—the ordering of class rings in the spring! What a feeling—what a glorious feeling!! Here we are, world, on the verge of being seniors! Look, we've almost made it!

Sophomore Class Continues Development as Part of the CHS Traditions

One more step up the ladder with only two more rungs to surmount! Thus the "wise" Class of '69 as upper lower-classmen came back to CHS with a feeling of being a necessary ingredient in the Trucker stew. With more involvement in sports, clubs, and general school work, all the sophomores realized that no longer were they the underlings. What a good feeling! With the host of activities and the daily preparation for class, life became one constant whirl of work and play. But it was worth it! We had become geared to the Trucker way of life!

Frosh Make Dazzling Debut at New Scene

As far as mixtures are concerned, the 1966-67 freshmen presented for the Truckers a needed ingredient to the CHS potpourri. Confusion and amazement reigned supreme in the halls of Churchland and awe became the by-word in September. Various "chores and services" managed to confront these "low men on the totem pole" as they found themselves polishing rings, carrying lunch trays, and enduring other mild forms of welcome. However, this initial contact with high school life was shortly mixed with the pressing reality of six classes per day and a host of extra-curricular activities. So many things to do, so many things to learn, so many traditions to keep!

Low men on the totem pole? Who cared? We were full-fledged Truckers—at last!

"Say, do you belong to a club at CHS? Well, I joined one, and, believe you me, I've found that mine really makes you work—or else! And how about the Pep Club; they really worked up a lot of spirit! And if it hadn't been for the band and chorus we sure would've had some dull assemblies! Did you ever seen anything to beat those Latin students dressed up in those Roman costumes! And what about the club initiation days?! Some fun! I never really knew how much the SCA did until this year; they're a group of real workers. All of them sure help to make CHS my kind of school!"

SCA Projects Exhibit Combined Co-operation

Spurred on by the arrival from France of Churchland's first Foreign Exchange student, the SCA this year involved itself in numerous projects. Among these were publication of a student directory, acceptance of a revised SCA Constitution, numerous fund-raising dances, and the presentation of scholarships to deserving seniors.

The result of this burst of effort was a closer union of SCA with student and a realization of strengthened teacher-student relationships.

Room 116—Scene of Constant Flurry of Activity as Annual Staffers Meet Deadlines

Deadlines for layouts, deadlines for copy, deadlines for publishers — "Remember, every day we're late for a deadline, the annual arrives one day later." With this in mind, members of the annual staff worked hard to publish a yearbook CHS students would enjoy. Work began during the summer and continued after the opening of school until late spring. The final result? The 1967 Trucker, of course!

BECKY WRIGHT PUTS the finishing touches to a showcase publicizing the 1967 TRUCKER.

WHO SAID WORKING on the annual is child's play? It certainly wasn't Steve Braintwain, Steve Scott, or Bill Oast as they work diligently late one afternoon.

"LOOK, JANE, LOOK. Watch Doug work!"

"THESE FLEETING MOMENTS of relaxation are just what I need" thinks Mr. Moore while cutting the cake during the annual staff party.

"Topics" Assumes Increased Status with New Columns, Better Photography

By putting out more newspapers, by adding new columns, by improving their photography, and by putting in more work, the Trucker Topics staff proved itself to be the best yet.

The new columns incorporated into the paper included Fashions Go-Round, Wendy's Windbag, Halftime, Letters to the Editors, and Sports-a-Torial.

Each issue delivered an accurate presentation of student life, along with articles promoting different SCA causes. As such, the twenty-six staff members all assumed the role of reporters with a "nose for news," an ear to the ground, and eye alert for newsworty events.

OUR MR. HOLBROOK—a real swinger! Need we say more?

Roman Reincarnations Roam CHS as Modern Day Romans Prove Latin Is Fun

Geat Caesar's Ghost! Who are those spirits in white? Why, they are the reincarnations of Roman patriarchs and plebes, members of the Societas Discipulorum Latinorum. In this year, MCMLXVII, they met six times in their "forum," the cafeteria, for varied activities. They observed the festival of Saturnalia in honor of Saturn in December by exchanging gifts, and celebrated Valentine's Day in February. The Latin banquet marked the grand finale of a fun-filled year. Served by attentive slaves, the noble Romans received a sumptuous feast of delicacies ranging "ab ovis ad mala" while being entertained by dancers, wrestlers, and orators.

Life and Customs

"La seance commence," began president Steve Blow as he called the first meeting of this year's French Club to order. With Mrs. Jackson as sponsor and Dominique Borrione as CHS's authority on France, the French Club began on a grand scale with a float based on Dumas' immortal novel, "The Three Musketeers."

"Maintenant . . . . and now," continued Steve, "we have to plan the year's agenda. We've already engaged Mrs. Franklin to speak on her European travels last summer, and, of course, Dominique will be featured in a French Club assembly, and then there's our annual French Banquet in the spring. Any other suggestions? Yes, dues are $1.00 per person. If that's all, we'll adjourn for refreshments."

"Don Quixote" Helps Spanish Club's Float Capture Third Place

"Charge the Comets!" By having a bake sale the Spanish Club raised enough money to construct this prize-winning float, depicted by an energetic Don Quixote, and captured third place in the homecoming parade.

Throughout the year, the club maintained an atmosphere of true Spanish gaiety. Los Amigos enjoyed a fiesta at Christmas and served as hosts to the Chesapeake Spanish Clubs' Banquet. A banquet of their own brought the year to a close.

Homecoming Parade for ICT Members

Off to a good start with the prize-winning float in the homecoming parade ,the Industrial Co-operative Training Club began another year, dedicated to the purpose of preparing juniors and seniors for future positions in the business world.

Under the direction of a new sponsor, Mr. Hanbury, members strove to gain job-training, to maintain good employer-employee relationships, and at the same time to earn extra money. Also performing a community service, the club sold candy and raised money to purchase toys for hospitalized children. Bringing the year to a close, the members and their bosses enjoyed their annual employer-employee banquet.

at Christmastime

Work, work, work! That's what D.E. is all about. By taking the D.E. program at school and receiving on-the-job training in widely varied fields, members discovered this as they prepared themselves for a future in the world of business.

Even the hardest workers have time for enjoyment, and D.E.-ers were no exceptions. They held the annual Christmas door decoration contest, proudly participated in National DECA Week, and competed in the state and district contests. A spring banquet held with the VOT Club completed a year of fun and learning for the future business leaders.

Future Teachers Guide Perplexed Parents at Open House

"This Month's 'Teacher of the Month' is . . ." Thus the Future Teachers of America began and ended the year with a carnation, a pin, and plenty of hard work.

Homecoming found boys busy purchasing their dates' pom-pons from FTA members.

After serving as guides for perplexed parents at Open House, they gave a tea for the teachers and an Easter Egg Hunt for the first-graders at Churchland Academy. Last was the banquet and installation of new officers.

FHA Members Encourage Hygiene with Sale of Toothbrushes

"Toothbrushes for sale!" was a cry often heard from FHA members in the fall. The funds raised by this, and other money-making projects, enabled members again to adopt three orphan girls to whom they presented gifts during the year.

After their formal initiation in early November, the Future Homemakers of America organized several other events such as the trip to Vepco and the special meeting in January when the minister from Centenary Methodist Church spoke to them. FHA week took place in March, and members participated in a few special activities during that time. The annual Mother-Daughter Banquet ended their yearly schedule of events.

Young Scientists Further Knowledge of Modern Age at Great Bridge with Computer

"Emphasis: The advancement of scientific interest" was the main concern of the CHS Science Club of '67. With programs consisting of guest speakers, student lectures, and field trips, such as the one to the computer at Great Bridge, these young science enthusiasts were exposed to a variety of scientific fields.

In the spring, with the advent of science competitions, the club sponsored a science fair for CHS students. On April 15, a science symposium, which included participants from all over Tidewater, served as a medium to stimulate discussion and learning. The Science Club thus not only exposed its own members to the diversities of science, but also helped to create scientific interest within the community.

Debate Team Organizes Discussions on Pros and Cons of Military Aid To Viet Nam

Debates . . . formal discussions . . . forensics — the 1967 Debate Team gathered material, outlined plans, and carried off the honors for CHS.

The question of military aid was tossed from left to right as our affirmative and negative debaters hashed out the problems of the status quo.

After a season of competing and matching wits with students from other schools, CHS debaters had gained experience for next year as well as honors for this year. Action . . . enjoyment . . . fun . . . hard work — all added up to a rewarding year.

Thespians Advance CHS Drama with Widened Experience

Endeavoring to advance the dramatic arts in high school, the Thespians expanded their own theatrical experience, while at the same time providing the school with high-quality productions.

Widening their own horizons, members attended several Little Theaters of the area and also several plays presented by other schools. To increase their ability, the members assisted in several school productions. In addition, in co-operation with the Dramatics Club, the Thespians presented their annual spring play, produced entirely by members of the two organizations.

Responsibility Evident in Cleaning School Grounds, Sale of Programs, and Winning Ace Award by Truckers

RICHIE STALLINGS MUMBLES to Tommy Balderson, "Don't you think it's time to go home? We've been here three hours!"

"Ooh, is it really true?!" By pinning Sharon Pate the Hi-Y Sweetheart, members of Truckers Hi-Y began to prove that they would again be one of the most active organizations at CHS. Serving both school and community, the members cleaned the school grounds, sold basketball programs and maintained a basketball schedule in the gym. Their efforts brought both district and state honors along with the greatest reward — the acquisition of the Ace Award.

Where do Dick Shea Hi-Y members spend their evenings? Twice a month, they can be found at the YMCA, busy planning projects to serve their school and community.

By selling candy, the members raised enough money to contribute both to the purchase of athletic blazers and also to the Foreign Exchange Fund of the SCA. Serving their community, the boys ushered at the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y rededication service this fall, and two of them had a chance to learn more about state government by attending MGA this spring. A final party for all added to the year's excitement.

'67 Graduates Deplete Ranks of CEM

The induction of new members started CEM's year with the right spirit. Giggling in the aisles seemed contagious, and by the end of the service, all were in good humor. This attitude prevailed!

Throughout the year, members were busily engaged in money-making projects. These included the sale of candy, rummage articles, and stationery.

Spring brought CEM's annual Bunny Hop and the approach of summer vacation. Due to the large number of '67 graduates, CEM became a smaller organization. The result was plans to increase the ranks of CEM once more.

Sponsors Receive Corsages from Tri-Hi-Y Members

September found Churchland Tri-Hi-Y members swinging into projects involving school, home, and community life. The girls named "Mr. and Miss School Spirit" each month. During National Tri-Hi-Y Week, the members presented each club sponsor with a corsage.

In February, Churchland Tri-Hi-Y members presented the long-awaited "Miss Churchland Contest." The arrival of spring brought with it the joys and surprises of a rewarding year.

Succedo leads School Spirit Drive and Increases Funds by Selling Pep Tags

"What do you yell for? Spirit!" During football season, Succedo girls strived to increase spirit by selling pep tags, and at the same time they gave a boost to their treasury. Bake sales and candy sales further added to the funds.

Not neglecting their responsibility to the community, the girls marched with the mothers for the March of Dimes and also for the Cancer Fund. In addition they filled baskets for needy families at Thanksgiving. The year ended with the installation of new officers and more spirited plans for '68.

Hemby "Thought for Week" Serves as Inspiration to CHS Student Body

"The Connie Hemby thought for the week is . . ." With these words Hemby Tri-Hi-Y sought to inspire and enlighten the student body of CHS. This service to the school was only one of the Tri-Hi-Y's many contributions. Serving both community and country, the girls made and distributed "ditty bags" to be filled with gifts for the soldiers in Viet Nam, stuffed envelopes with Christmas seals, and helped needy families during the holidays.

Through the sale of doughnuts, candy, and litter bags, Hemby finally attained its major goal—the presentation of a scholarship to a worthy senior.

Ace Award Achieved By Perrecta Tri-Hi-Y

Valentines sent to Viet Nam??? Yes, this year Perrecta Tri-Hi-Y paid tribute to our fighting men in Viet Nam by sending Valentines to all there who were Churchland graduates. This was only one of the many reasons why the club earned the Ace Award, the highest honor which can be given to a Tri-Hi-Y.

Among their many other projects were stuffing envelopes for the Tuberculosis Association and decorating the Suburban Country Club for the annual Snowball Dance. All in all, the year proved to be full and rewarding.

Churchland Hi-Y Gives New Flag to CHS

A new flag flies over CHS! In the third year of its existence Churchland Hi-Y began by donating a new American flag.

Starting the year with little money in the treasury, most of the Hi-Y's time was occupied by fund-raising projects. Despite this, the members found time for several community projects, such as supplying the Portsmouth YMCA with a Christmas tree. This year they assumed the additional task of advertising the annual Snowball Dance.

In reward for their work, the members and pledges were treated to a party and picnic at the end of the year.

Halloween Favors, Christmas Party, Easter Baskets Enliven Children's Holidays

"Tom Sawyer," Beck's Homecoming float, was the prelude to a year of busy activity. Bake sales and doughnut sales made possible many community projects. The main undertaking was aiding the Kirk-Cone Rehabilitation Center by making Halloween favors and Easter baskets and giving a Christmas party for the children. In addition, members worked at the Cystic-Fibrosis Center and participated in the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y rededication service, as well as in National Tri-Hi-Y Week.

Pierette Club Reflects Charm In Form of Mirror

"Now, young ladies . . . .," began Mrs. Smith as she tried to get the attention of the Pierette Club. The thirty members were more than Senior girls at CHS — they had been selected to extend charm and etiquette throughout the school. Meeting in members' homes, the girls learned about social graces and fashions. As a project the club presented the school a horizontal mirror "for half-time hair styling during ball games."

The year closed with each member pinning a rising Senior to succeed her and continue the promotion of poise and charm.

Who were the male cheerleaders at the pep rallies this fall? More than likely, they were Varsity C pledges. Their same smiling faces also appeared behind concession stands at home basketball games.

All forty members sold toothbrushes to raise money and aided athletic events by keeping field-and-track records. However, the boys discovered that not all is work in the Varsity C Club. The year ended with a spring picnic which further carried out the club's purpose — to create and maintain a feeling of friendship between teammates.

CHS students were given a treat at the beginning of school this year. The occasion? Girls pledging for the Monogram Club! For three days the students enviously eyed the latest in fashions and color combinations. In addition to being applauded, the lucky models gained entrance into the club.

After such a light-hearted beginning, Monogram members turned to more serious pursuits, such as the student-faculty game, and the sponsorship of a game between the faculty and WAVY-TV.

VOT Girls Join in Employer-Employee Banquet Given as End-of-Year Spree for Business Students at CHS

From their new long-carriage typewriter and transcribing machines to duplicating and adding machines, students enrolled in Vocational Office Training learn to apply skills acquired in the classroom through actual on-the-job work in area businesses. As a finishing course for students of business education, VOT served as a strong link between CHS and the community. Along with DE and ICT, VOT girls gave an Employer-Employee Banquet, and thus they had the chance to spend their hard-earned doughnut money.

Addition of Drum Major Gives Colorful Touch to Marching Band

"Hup - Two - Three - Four About Face!" Thus the CHS band began another outstanding year with marching rehearsals before the opening of school. With new uniforms, the band provided halftime activities for the enjoyment of all. Among other fall activities were the Oyster Bowl Parade and the colorful Harvest Ball. This year the band marched in military style and for the first time was led by a drum major, Craig Parker.

Placed high on the school calendar and well thought of by the students were the three band concerts and the numerous school assemblies and pep rallies. The band's continuing excellence is a constant source of pride at CHS.

As a supplement to the regular Mixed Chorus, Mr. Barnes organized two new singing groups "to give a wider musical experience to more singers." The Melody-Annes, a group of freshmen and sophomore girls, drew together some outstanding voices into one ensemble. The Melody-Aires was also formed as the men's counterpart to the Melody-Annes. The Village Singers, formed last year as Churchland's singing representatives, reasserted itself in various functions.

New Ideas in Concerts Noted in Production, The Three Angels

The unusual is never unexpected at CHS! Instead of the usual concert, a Christmas show was given in which the singing was backed by a moderate amount of dancing and scenery. In fact, December proved itself to be a very busy time for the Choral Department. At that time the "Villagers" performed at the Veterans' Hospital and on a local TV show. With the coming of spring came the All-Regional Chorus, and a pleasant innovation — Churchland's first musical-comedy production, Bells Are Ringing.

and Enjoyable"

With the coming of fall, CHS found that it had a new choral director. Under the leadership of Mr. Richard Barnes, the Mixed Chorus functioned as a group, not only to develop styles of singing, but also to teach the interpretation of music. One important by-product of the singers' work was the enjoyment of students listening to them. Mr. Barnes set his aim as "making music a vital and enjoyable part of each student's school-day experience."

"Wasn't homecoming the most colorful thing you have ever seen? And all those floats—and pretty girls! Man, can I stand a lot of that! And that senior play! I don't think I have ever seen a more mixed-up, kooky family than was in it! And speaking of beauty—what about those girls in the Miss Churchland contest! Was that ever a blast! You know, I thought that the brainy ones around here were real eggheads and squares—but I reckon I am wrong 'cause it must take a lot of hard work to be an honor grad or award winner! I think I'll try to be one when I graduate!"

Many hours of hard work by the SCA culminated on October 14. Explicit plans had assured that the '66 Homecoming would be the best ever . . . alumni were invited, plans for the pre-game parade and half-time ceremonies were put into action, and the cafeteria was ready for the dance.

Homecoming was now a reality. On the field stood twelve nervous junior and senior girls with their escorts. But first came the announcement of the float prizes . . . ICT Club won first place, with Truckers Hi-Y and Spanish Club winning second and third places. Now came the long-awaited moment . . . Maid of Honor Peggy Wittig and Queen Marilynn Miller.

Homecoming Co-Chairmen Marion Weintraub and Diane Benton thus gave a sign of relief.

Senior Actors Present "Prize-Winning" Play

"One of the most successful plays ever presented at CHS." With these words Mr. Lewis Gwin, director, praised this year's Senior Class Play, "You Can't Take It With You."

In the comedy, youthful seniors portrayed a family of eccentric individuals who have unusual but true values for life. In addition, other members of the class undertook all responsibilities for the production.

The acting of these talented Seniors delighted audiences on December 8 and 9, with the by-product being a larger treasury.

CHS Marshals Recognize Scholastic Achievement in Upperclassmen

A name called or a tap on the shoulder . . . the suspense of two of the most-awaited assemblies at CHS.

Twenty juniors, chosen as Marshals, served as hosts at school functions throughout the year.

As the highest recognition of scholastic achievement at CHS, the National Honor Society tapped ten per cent of the Class of '67. Exemplifying qualities of leadership, scholarship, character and service, the club gave "honor roll" cupcakes, encouraged safe driving, and raised money for a scholarship with a coat check.

An honor? Yes!! Congratulations!

"Hey, this sure was an exciting year of sports, wasn't it? Football sure did come and go in a hurry; I reckon it is a good thing 'cause I yelled and cheered with the cheerleaders until I was hoarse. I don't think I could stand a basketball season that was more exciting! How about that last second goal in winning over First Colonial that helped us get into the tournament? And, that tournament game!! What a thriller it was! And if fall and winter sports were not enough, what about those spring sports? Only the very best! What a year to remember!"

6-4 Season Places Truckers among Top Teams in District

"This was my best all-around team," commented Coach Brandriff at the end of the season.

The Truckers, returning this year with nineteen lettermen and under the experienced leadership of coaches Art Brandriff, Preston Burton, and Harry Betts, placed fifth in the District with a season record of six wins and four losses.

The offense showed great improvement over last year by more than doubling the total yards rushing. Robert Lawson led the team in rushing and was the top scorer in the District with 72 points, while Harvey Randall was selected as an All-Metro and All-District guard.

Maury

In an exciting season opener, the Truckers lost 19-12 to the Commodores of Maury High. Chasper Taylor, a newcomer in Churchland's ranks, scored first for the Truckers on a 63-yard punt return. The fast action of the third quarter put the Truckers on top 12-7 on an 11-yard touchdown pass from senior quarterback Jack Hanel to junior end Bob Arnette. Hanel also had six other completions that added 98 yards to the Churchland offense. In the fourth quarter, the Truckers fell victim to two Maury drives which resulted in touchdowns and victory for the Commodores.

Wilson

Despite a rugged defense by the Truckers in the third and fourth quarters, Churchland was nevertheless handed a 27-14 defeat by arch-rival Wilson. Chasper Taylor first put the Truckers on the scoreboard with a brilliant 90-yard kickoff return, following a Wilson score. With the score tied 7-7, wilson's Walter Tobler ran for two touchdowns of 24 and 5 yards and passed for another to flanker Thad Parsons. In the hard-fought defensive struggle of the fourth quarter, a 30-yard run by Jack Hanel and two Wilson penalties set up a 3-yard scoring run by senior Robert Lawson.

Deep Creek

In their first home game of the season, the Truckers made an excellent showing as they scored an impressive 6-0 victory over the Deep Creek Hornets. The first three quarters of the game were primarily a defensive struggle in which both teams exchanged fumbles and interceptions. Steve Bristow, defensive safety, aided Churchland with four intercepted passes, but one was nullified by a 15-yard penalty. In the fourth quarter, two penalties and a 20-yard run by Marvin Taylor enabled Robert Lawson to score the only touchdown of the game.

MARVIN TAYLOR (26) AND Mike King (76) scramble through the Kellam line—but, there's a flag on the play!

Princess Anne

Despite a Princess Anne score late in the first half, the Cavaliers suffered a 12-7 defeat at the hands of the Churchland Truckers. A 31-yard pass from Churchland quarterback Jack Hanel to end Bob Arnette, enabled fullback George O'Brien to plunge two yards for the first score of the game with 6:28 left in the first half. In the fourth quarter the Cavaliers drove to the Trucker one yard line before quarterback Bob German was thrown for a 4-yard loss. Churchland then pounded 95 yards upfield with Bob Lawson scoring the final TD.

DONNIE TUTTLE (65) AND Jerry Gaines (85) move in on Deep Creek's Stanley Archer.

STEVE BRISTOW GAINS vital yardage In an end sweep against Princess Anne.

JACK HANEL, SENIOR quarterback, is pursued by Don Graves (82) before completing a pass against Granby.

Great Bridge

Although the Truckers fought valiantly against the Great Bridge Wildcats, they were overpowered by the Wildcat defense and the passing of star quarterback Tommy Rhodes, losing 32-20. The hard-charging Churchland defense led by Harvey Randall, Reggie Kirkman and Tom Loizzi held Great Bridge to two touchdowns in the first half and allowed Chasper Taylor to catch a 25-yard touchdown pass. In the fourth quarter, Taylor made an 88-yard kick-off return, shortly followed by Bob Arnette scoring on a 42-yard pass from Jack Hanel.

Granby

In the most hard fought game of the year, the Truckers lost to Granby by a slim score of 3-0. From the first kick-off until the end of the game, the two teams displayed an exciting defensive battle before a homecoming crowd of 5,000. The Truckers, led by Chasper Taylor and Robert Lawson, were held to only 93 yards rushing and 63 yards passing. Beset by crushing penalties, their deepest threat was only to the Granby 25 yard line. The winning score came midway in the third quarter on a 33 yard field goal by Granby's Don McWhorter.

First Colonial

Once again Churchland was able to come from behind in the fourth quarter to overcome the First Colonial Patriots by a score of 16-7. The Patriots were the first to get on the scoreboard, just before the fourth quarter, on a 48 yard drive. Churchland, after being held on the Patriot's one-yard line, broke through the line and scored a safety. A 17 yard pass to Dana Ferrell set up the next Trucker score, when Robert Lawson ran for 26 yards. Before the end of the game Churchland managed to score again on a 52-yard run by Chasper Taylor.

CHASPER TAYLOR, ONE of Churchland's outstanding halfbacks, plunges through the Maury line in the first quarter at Foreman Field.

Kellam

Aroused by a fake scouting report written by the Churchland coaching staff, the Truckers overwhelmed the evenly-rated Kellam Knights by a score of 31-7. The Truckers piled up 264 yards rushing and 72 more passing. The defense did an excellent job of holding the Knights to a total offense of only 59 yards. Robert Lawson, on runs of nine and 22 yards, scored twice and Dana Ferrell grabbed two scoring passes from quarterback Jack Hanel. Harvey Randall, senior guard, threw the Kellam offense for several losses and made 21 tackles.

Oscar Smith

In Churchland's most stirring ground attack of the year, the Truckers wiped out Oscar Smith by a score of 31-0. Scoring four touchdowns and 144 yards rushing, Robert Lawson placed himself among the leading scorers in the District. Taking the first kickoff of the game, the Truckers, on a nine-yard plunge by Chasper Taylor, scored with 8:57 remaining in the first quarter. For the remainder of the game, it was just a matter of ball control for the Truckers. The offense rolled out 506 yards rushing and the defense held Oscar Smith to only four first downs.

EVADING OSCAR SMITH'S BILL Kuykendall (77), senior halfback, Robert Lawson (32), races toward the goal line late in the second quarter of the game.

TIMMY ENGLE (43) MOVES in to block for Bobby Arnette (86).

Cradock

The season came to a victorious end for the Truckers when they rolled over Cradock 39-0. By doing so, they finished with a winning season of 6-4. The offense was so sluggish in the first half that the Truckers made merely two first downs to the Admirals eight. However, they took advantage of several breaks, intercepting five passes and blocking three punts. The first score came on the recovery of a blocked punt by Donnie Tuttle, junior linebacker. The Trucker defense held Cradock to only 19 yards rushing.

CHURCHLAND COACHES, HARRY Betts, Art Brandriff, and Preston Burton, run the team through one of their daily exercises.

HAPPINESS IS WINNING your first home game, according to Timmy Engel (43) and Leonard Sly (40).

Cross-Country Team, Hindered by Injuries, Attains Best Record Ever of 8-4

Reduced to fewer runners than last year, the Cross-Country team, urged on by the experienced coaching of Ken Burgess, but plagued by injuries, came up with an 8-4 record; they also took fourth place in the District meet. Venturing to Williamsburg to participate in the William and Mary Invitational, the team placed sixth among 24 schools in the state.

Returning lettermen Leonard Hillers, captain and outstanding member of the team, Jim Link and Steve Otwell, supplied much strength for this year's team.

H-MMM-MMM, I GUESS they won't be able to start the race until I get off the starting line," reasons Coach Burgess.

Summer Practices Prepare "Rah-Rah" Girls for Pep-filled Year

Jumping to the beat of the band or the rhythm of clapping hands, the Varsity Cheerleaders, in new tri-colored skirts, made quite a sight at basketball and football games and even made appearances at some wrestling matches. After learning new cheers and practicing three times a week all summer long, they deserved the PJ parties held following every football game. Besides cheering for the Oyster Bowl parade, throwing parties for athletes, and making school spirit signs, our Cheerleaders were hostesses for a Varsity Review held at CHS.

ONE OF OUR more "fortunate" players, Bobby Arnette, is escorted before the pep rally by Judy Horner and Susan Caffee.

New Uniforms, New Cheers Put New Zest in Jayvees

"Practice makes perfect" might have been the motto for the Junior Varsity Cheerleaders. Elected in the early fall, they were soon cheering the JV athletes on with their enthusiasm. During football and basketball season, they made pep tags, player signs, and cupcakes every week. Besides this, they composed their own cheer, "Hey There", and gave a JV pep rally assembly with the band. New uniforms highlighted the basketball season. With all this, it wasn't surprising that co-captains, Linda and Valerie, noticed increased spirit at all JV games.

"GEE, I WISH I had my va-rrrooomm motor," mumbles Boo Wittig during the homecoming parade.

After playing a tough schedule, the young Jayvee team ended the season with a 2-5 record. Co-captains, Donnie Lovell and Ronnie Psimas, led the team in seven exciting games. After coaching his first year at CHS, Purvis Edwards has new ideas for next year but will be losing several boys to the varsity team. Coach Edwards felt he had "a pretty good year considering it was a young team."

The outstanding linemen were Ricky Lesoine on offense, and Tommy Scott on defense. Backs Don Lovell, Ronnie Psimas, and Chris Jacobson added further depth and power to Churchland's JV football.

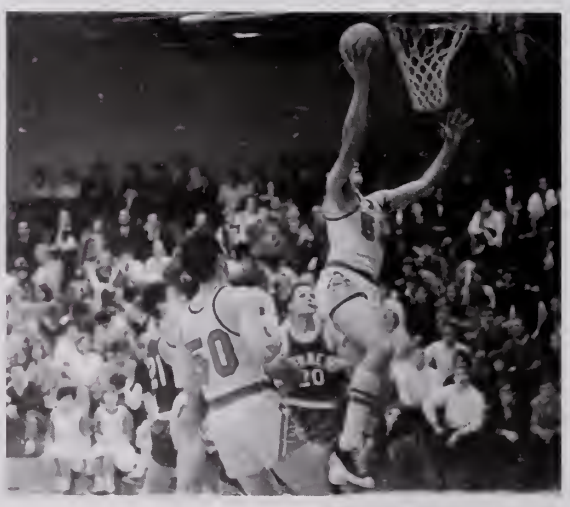
Truckers Pull Near-Upset Against Granby in Tournament Play



HAVING EVADED DEEP Creek defenders, Tom Loizzi easily drops in two points for the Truckers.

"I feel like I just won the Kentucky Derby on a jackass." This quip, spoken by Coach Howard at the end of the Cradock game, explained the handicaps faced by the Varsity Basketball team this year. Plagued by poor percentages, especially on the foul line, the boys had to rely on the moves of John McCammon and the outside shooting of Gary Eley and Bobby Arnette.

This year, just as last, the team earned a berth in the District Tournament by defeating Oscar Smith, and lost to first place Granby by only three points.

John McCammon, outstanding player of the year, earned a position among the District's top scorers.

RICKY RICHARDSON (32) OUTJUMPS Bob McMichaels (55) of Norview in the closing moments of the game.

Jayvees Excel with Unequaled 14-4 Record

TOMMY WRIGHT, GUARDED by Great Bridge's Barry Braatz (32), prepares to pass off to Jimmy Jones (44).

Beginning the season with nine straight victories, the Jayvees rolled on to an unequaled 14-4 team record, as they also highlighted their schedule season by the double victory over the Wilson Jayvees. The outstanding success may readily be attributed to the new coaching of Mr. Boyd who instilled the team with a will to win.

Tommy Wright, Dale VanCantfort and Randy Michie led the Jayvees in rebounding and scoring. Dale and Randy, freshmen, showed themselves to be excellent prospects for the varsity team.

Determined Spirit Urges Truckerettes to 15-5 Season Record

"We won't be beat, we can't be beat," was the motto behind a very successful Truckerette team. The loss of only one senior proved that experience greatly counts. Debby Miller brought recognition to the team when she was appointed a member of the All-Tournament Team during the Christmas tournament. Jean Sly led the scoring by making over 200 points. Betty Carroll Bell's guarding proved to be outstanding on defense.

The highlight of the season came when the girls traveled to Williamsburg for a game and were snowed in. They ended up staying in a motel (of course they won their game!).

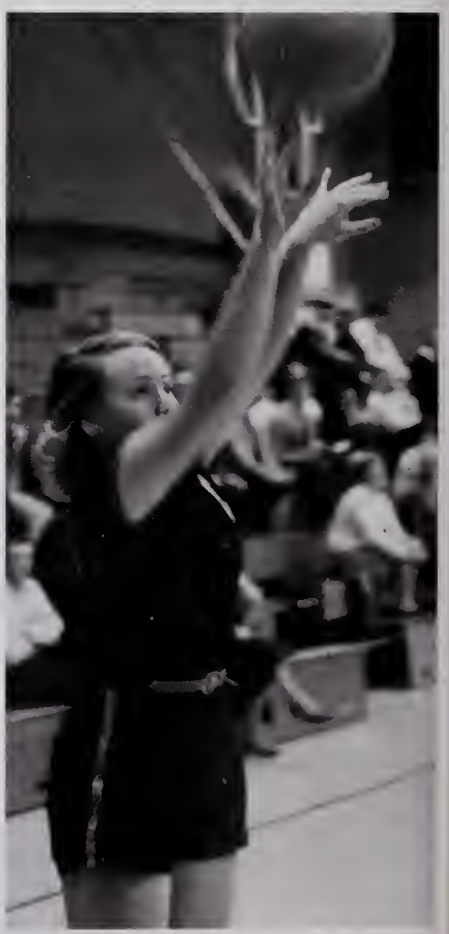
DURING A TIME-OUT, Miss Van Dyck emphasizes some team strategy with the starting players.



JEAN SLY, HIGH scorer for the team, adds two more points against Gloucester.

AN EXERCISE IN ballet? No, it's just Betty Carroll Bell and Martha Waters (32) struggling for ball control, while Suffolk's Trudy Horton (left) and Martha Holland (right) seem to have the same idea.

Churchland's wrestling team this year found itself under a new coach, Purvis Edwards, and with a group of eager, hard-working matmen. Following weeks of daily training sessions, the team opened its '66-'67 season with a match against Norview. Beset by numerous defeats, the team nevertheless presented a challenge to all of their opponents and in the process gained the necessary competitive experience.

In February, the team participated in the Eastern District Tournament, resulting in third and fourth place wins for Ricky Edmundson and Roger Shope, which, in turn, gave them the chance to represent CHS in the State Tournament.

Kneeling: Craig Buchanan, Robert Reagan, Jimmy Morgan. Standing: Steve Lavender, Tommy Scott, Mark Mehalic, Kaz Romanczyk.

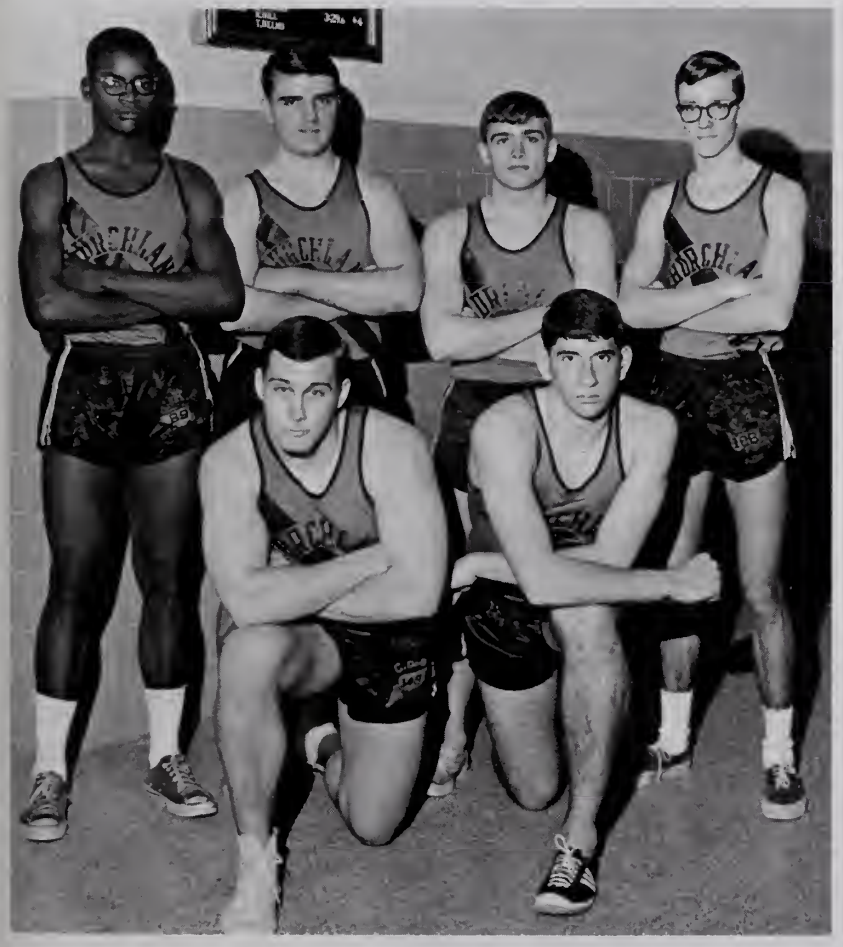
ON HIS WAY to winning the triple jump, Jerry Gaines puts forth the maximum effort at the Frederick College field house.

Indoor Track, Led by Gaines, Achieves Undefeated Season

"Runners, take your mark."
"Scratch."
"Last call for the high jump."

These and many more cries of this sort could be heard echoing almost every Saturday afternoon in the Frederick College field house. It was here where fans could find the Churchland indoor track team putting forth one hundred per cent effort to defeat another foe. It was here, behind the experienced coaching of Ken Burgess and the setback of a 2-5 record last year, that the Truckers achieved an undefeated season.

Jerry Gaines, an outstanding member of the team and individual high scorer at the district meeting, led the district and attained a ninth place in the state meet.



Kneeling: Reggie Kirkman, Tommy Loizzi. Standing: Jerry Gaines, Mike Preas, John Woodard, Bill Kissinger.

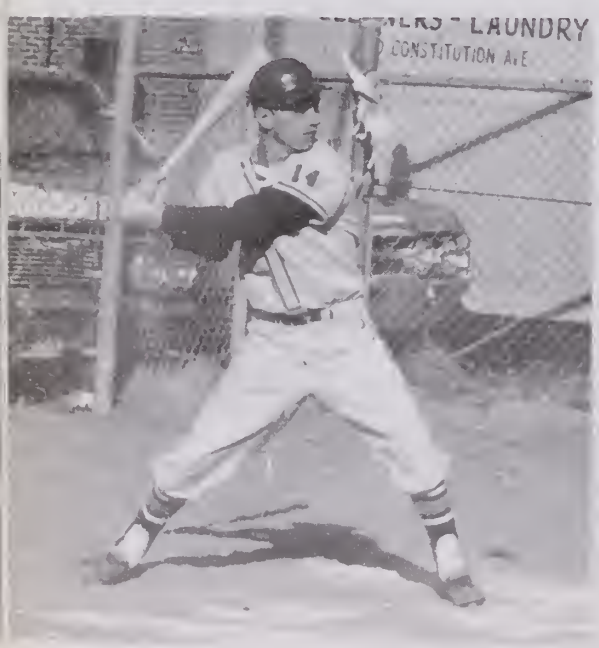
Truckers Brave Wind and Weather with Early Season Practices and Games



ALREADY IN STRIDE, Larry Johnson prepares to connect with the ball.

"Play ball!"

The return of this familiar call brought baseball to CHS. The team, practicing since February, opened their season with Oscar Smith. Previous to this, the team participated in a number of practice games. Mr. Boyd said of the team, "This is the team that could bring CHS its first Eastern District championship."

Outstanding players included lettermen Larry Johnson and Tommy Weatherford and "rookie" Jerry Gaines.

DANA FERRELL, WHILE covering first base, scoops up the ball thrown by Jerry Gaines.

"IT'S NOW OR never," thinks Tommy Weatherford as he takes a big lead off first base during a practice game with Old Dominion.

PITCHERS. Jerry Gaines, Steve Otwell, Dana Ferrell, Mike Vrecenar, Ricky Richardson.

MIKE VRECENAR SEEMS to give the ball the "evil eye" as he follows through with his pitch.

Track Veterans Lead Team through

WORKING TO GREATER heights, Glenn Rountree easily vaults the bar during the team's first week of practice.

Season of "Intense Work, Individual Effort"

After such a successful Indoor Track season, Coach Burgess and Coach Brandriff were presented with the makings of another outstanding CHS track team. This group may have lacked the depth of former teams, but according to Coach Burgess, "Hard work and intense individual effort make up for it." And as usual, CHS came through, led by veterans Leonard Hillers, David Reitz and Jim Link, and fieldmen Reggie Kirkman, Jerry Gaines, Tom Loizzi and Andy Constantinides.

TRUE TO FORM, Tommy Loizzi puts the shot in a daily practice at CHS.

TOMMY BALDERSON CAREFULLY lines up a put on the ninth green at Elizabeth Manor Country Club.

Liebler and Radford Lead CHS Golfers to Victorious Season

Churchland's golf team swung its way through another successful season and captured a top place in the Eastern District standings. Mr. Howard's experienced coaching not only guided the team in the proper skills but also instilled in the team a victorious spirit and a desire to win.

Leading the team were Lloyd Liebler, the youngest finalist in the National Juniors, Pat Radford, Tommy Balderson, Grant Parker, and Lewis Jarvis.

Trucker Netmen Vie for Top Positions in Eastern District

With intense spirit, interest, and a will to win, the tennis team thus began its '67 season. Ladder competition and practice matches with Granby and Frederick College served as preludes to what Mr. Bett's called "a most encouraging sign of a winning year!" Newcomers to the team, including many freshmen prospects, added enthusiąsm as the Trucker netmen vied for top positions in the Eastern District.

BARRY KATZ, POISED in the middle of of a serve, gets in some pre-season practice.

"Say, did you know the Trucker staff works off and on all summer? That is the time they do all their ad collecting from the businesses in this area. I sure am glad that they are interested in our school and help us in this way. I think I'm going to tell my folks to buy stuff from these places. I wonder if this is one way that makes for good public relations —as Mr. Beck says on the PA so many times. You know, I have never really thought of it, but a lot of these businesses are our own parents — in a way they are sort of full-fledged Truckers, too."

Mixture of Studies and Activities Makes '66-'67 School Year 180 Days of Learning, Growth, and Good Times

"Hey, this is some book! Did you notice all those page designs and the way they looked? They sure must've spent a lot of time drawing 'em up. Real modern looking! I asked Becky and Doug if they had anybody to help 'em and they said that John Perry of Hunter Publishing Company helped draw it all up; they also said Dick Bruckse and Jim Saine took a lot of the pictures. You know, they're right good. I'll bet Mr. Moore almost had a nervous breakdown in keeping his staff on the ball! I wonder how many hours the staff put in; it must've been tremendous! But there are two things I just don't understand — why did they use different paper for the first part of the book, and I still don't understand that mixed up word POTPOURRI — hey, I said it! I sure hope the epilogue sheds more light on it!!"

EPILOGUE

For every beginning there must be an ending.
So it is with the 1966-67 school year at CHS.
From the first day, through games, dances, tests, clubs, plays, homework, SCAT and STEP, exams, and holidays to final grades and graduation, this year has involved some 1300 "residents" of CHS in a myriad of activities—voluminous and all-inclusive. This has been our year, over with all too soon. In short, it's been a POTPOURRI.
